

Padre Pio Novena Prayer 9 Days for a Miracle

About St. Padre Pio

St. Padre Pio, born Francesco Forgione in 1887 in Pietrelcina, Italy, was a humble Capuchin friar, priest, and mystic known for his deep prayer life, holiness, and the extraordinary spiritual gifts God gave him — including the stigmata, the wounds of Christ.

He was ordained a priest on August 10, 1910, and celebrated his first Mass on August 14, 1910, beginning a life completely offered to God.

On September 20, 1918, while praying before a crucifix, the stigmata became visible on his body — wounds he would bear in humility and silence for the next 50 years.

Padre Pio spent long hours in the confessional, reading hearts and guiding countless souls back to God. His deep union with Christ, especially through suffering, brought comfort and healing to many. People from all over the world sought his prayers and intercession. His famous advice still resonates today:

"Pray, hope, and don't worry."

St. Padre Pio died on September 23, 1968. He was beatified on May 2, 1999, and canonized on June 16, 2002, by Pope John Paul II. He is honored as one of the most beloved saints in the Catholic Church.
